We pause 'mid the wonder of Life
And the magic of Science,
To bring forth on these pages
The golden moments of time
Just past.
It is our wish to walk again
The paths of achievement, fun,
Beauty and skill;
We set them all before
You–
Come walk with us!

The Class of '74 presented two one-act plays on Friday, April 23.

In "If Boys Wore Skirts" the audience had a glimpse into the possible future. Skirts were the accepted wear for boys; trousers the accepted fashion for girls. Two of the students got a little radical and tried the reverse and all discovered skirts were more attractive for girls and the trousers suited the boys. The cast included: Kent Neiman, Penny Ridinger, Jeanine Clark, Becky Dorsett, Steve Snell, Pam Morrow, Mark Thomas, Jim Waugh, Valerie Young, Susie Baker, Russell Stinson, Chuck Wood and Jim Watts. Alvin McAmis was the announcer with Melvin Snook and Jim Watts as attendants.

The Victory Dance

Homecoming began traditionally this year but was more action packed than usual because of a fun-filled week of activities: sign contests, pep assemblies, working on floats, a chili supper, snake dance, burning of the "H" and the coronation of the King and Queen. The coronation ceremonies, which followed the chili supper, were held on October 1 at 7:00 p.m. It was similar to last year's program but the chorus took part by singing "Today" after Wayne Aaberg and Denise Clark were crowned by Kelly Bush and Eddie Willson.

The climax of the week was the football game. The mighty Devils trounced the Sundance Bulldogs by a score of 25-14. It was more than a victory to the team, coaches, and fans because it was the first victory over Sundance since 1964.

The Victory Ball began at 8:30 with the Vice Lords furnishing the music.

The Pep Club won the

Rev. Richard Axmann

The Hulett Chapter of the National Honor Society held its 1970 initiation of new members on November 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hulett School lunchroom. Joyce Grubb welcomed the guests and read a poem, "The Candle is but a Simple Thing" which started the lighting of the candles to represent the four virtues stressed by the Honor Society. Present members who described these virtues as they lit the candles were: Character, Veronica DeLancey; Scholarship, Wayne Aaberg; Leadership, by Dave McAmis; Service, Mike Hedger.

After the candle lighting ceremony, the new members were introduced and they gave the creed of the National Honor Society. The new members who received their membership cards were: Steve Storie, Walt Daknis, and Connie Neiman.

The guest speaker for the evening was Rev. Richard Axmann. His talk was followed by entertainment by Veronica DeLancey and Wayne Aaberg. They sang "Homeward Bound." Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The FFA and FHA held their annual Sweetheart-Beau Dance March 12, 1971. The candidates for beau were: Dave McAmis, Monte Neiman, Monte Raber, and Jim Waugh. Candidates for sweetheart were: Wanda Clark, Vicki Bush, Linda Linklater and Jeanine Clark. Melvin Watts, FFA President, crowned Vicki Bush the 1971 FFA sweetheart. Kim Shaw, 1970 sweetheart, crowned Monte Raber the 1971 FHA beau. Refreshments were served at intermission.

The Senior Class presented three one-act plays March 19. The first play "Little Prison" took place at 5:00 in the afternoon in a stalled elevator car. It seemed that Daisy (Cindy Jahnig) and Pearl (Joyce Grubb) were having a fight over a certain young man while Blanche Bluff (Wanda Clark) and Miss Ellison (LuAnne Thomas) and Mrs. Richardson (Allien Spangler) were adding to the excitement.

The second play, "Box and Cox", took place in England in the late 1800's in an old English boarding house. Mrs. Bouncer (Veronica DeLancey) was renting her room to two men at the same time. John Box (Wayne Aaberg) worked at night as a printer, James Cox (Ron Raber) was a hatter and worked in the daytime. Everything went smoothly until the hatter got the day off and they found out about each other.

The third play, "Wilbur Faces Facts", found Wilbur Maxwell (Melvin Watts) and his pal Hercules Nelson (Alvin Oliver) trying to get his oldest sister Connie (LuAnne Thomas) married off to Eddie Anderson (Lloyd Rathbun) so he would just have Betty Lou (Denise Clark) left to compete with. All during this Mrs. Maxwell (Wanda Clark) was trying to keep Mr. Maxwell (Jerry Nielsen) from blowing up.

The annual Lettermen's Awards Banquet for the Hulett High School lettermen and their parents was held on April 16.

The featured speaker was Ron Young, a student at Black Hills State College in Spearfish. Ron Young gave a very interesting talk. He emphasized the fact that an athlete should not be self-centered, and that there are many activities in college other than sports to participate or compete in. Mr. Young has received about 250 4-H awards, three varsity college football letters, and was selected "Teenager of the year" in 1969.

Mr. Roland Halvorsen presented the football and basketball awards and letters.

The wrestling awards and letters were presented by Mr. Daniel Long.

A Roman Holiday

The Junior Class entertained in the splendor of a Roman Festival Hall on April 30. President Mike Neiman welcomed everyone to the banquet.

Vicki Bush gave the invocation and the class and their guests sat down to a feast fit for the gods.

Guests were ushered by Jeanine Clark, Rhonda Bush, Gary Storie and Mark Thomas. Servers were Kim Shaw, Bonnie Nielsen, Kay Foster, Linda Linklater, Eugene Wright, Monte Snook, Pat Nacey and Monte Raber.

Patrician Veronica DeLancey and Plebian Crystal Neiman sang the theme song, "A Time for Us.". Calvin Willey then gave the class prophecy. Ed Willson presented the class will. A little humor was added when Ed presented the Junior Class with the "loudest class" plaque which they had hidden several months ago, and a roll calendar which has meant a great deal to the senior class.

Mike Neiman crowned the queen

King and Queen–David McAmis and Wanda Clark

STONE HEDGE

Wanda Clark and David McAmis were selected as Prom Queen and King, and they were crowned during the intermission of the Prom. The band played in a setting typical of a ROMAN HOLIDAY. With the lights shining on the fountain, the Roman pillars, and the sky, one felt as if he were back in a festival hall of Caesar's day. Tantalizing punch and sweets were served. Music was by STONE HEDGE.

The Crook County Schools began a guidance program, March 1, 1971.

The service, under Title III, had been in the planning stage some time prior to that date.

There are two guidance personnel serving the schools of the new county-wide district. J. B. Smith, who helped write the plan for the program serves as coordinator and elementary counselor.

Robert J. Smith, who came early in April, serves as secondary school counselor.

Eva Willey serves as secretary to the counselors in the Hulett School.
